

Robert E. Clift

Bob has worked in law enforcement and accountability assurance positions for more than 35 years.

During a 24-year U.S. Air Force career, Bob served as an enlisted security policeman, a commissioned police shift commander and Special Agent with the Air Force Office of Special Investigations (OSI). Bob served as the commander of two OSI units; Griffiss Air Force Base, New York and Eglin Air Force Base, Florida. While serving as a Special Agent, Bob focused on conducting and leading Department of Defense procurement fraud and crimes against persons investigations. Bob also served as OSI's Federal Liaison officer in Washington DC, responsible for maintaining relations with foreign police attaches assigned in the United States.

Bob began his State career in 1997 as the Director of Investigations for the Florida Department of Transportation's Office of Inspector General. He and his section investigated internal and external crimes and misconducts impacting the Department with a focus on contract crimes resulting in a financial loss to the Department.

Bob was selected by the Florida's Chief Financial Officer as the Inspector General for the Florida Department of Financial Services in 2007 where he led independent investigations, audits and consulting assignments. In March 2011, Bob was appointed as Inspector General for the Florida Department of Transportation where he and the OIG team strive to add value to the Department of Transportation, the State of Florida, and the citizens of the state by performing professional audits, consulting services, contract crime and employee misconduct investigations.

Bob has received the Certified Inspector General and Certified Inspector General Investigator designations from the Association of Inspectors General. Bob is currently serving the Association as both the Chairman of the Professional Development Committee and President of the Association's Florida Chapter. Bob is a graduate of The Florida State University with a bachelor's degree in Criminology.
