

FLORIDA INSPECTORS GENERAL

Enhancing Public Trust

Christopher T. Hirst

Chris is currently the Inspector General for the Department of Children and Family. Prior to joining DCF Chris was a 28 year Law Enforcement veteran. Chris has served in a multitude of capacities within the Law Enforcement community to include: Uniform Patrol, Detective, Dive Team, SWAT Team, Special Operations Team, Special Agent, Special Agent Supervisor, Chief of Investigations/Assistant Special Agent in Charge. Primary investigative background was Persons crimes and Drug crimes. Agencies worked for: Florida State University Police Department, Leon County Sheriff's Office, Florida Department of Law Enforcement, Department of Children and Family.