

FLORIDA INSPECTORS GENERAL

Enhancing Public Trust

Jerry Chesnutt

Jerry's professional career has been in the accounting and auditing field. He worked for a CPA firm out of college and then spent a number of years with Sears as a Controller and Auditor with assignments in Knoxville, Dallas, New Orleans, Chicago, and Tallahassee. As an Inspector General and Director of Internal Audit, he has worked for the Departments of Commerce, Corrections and currently Children and Families.

He has a undergraduate degree in Accounting (BBA) and a Masters in Business Administration (MBA). He is a Certified Internal Auditor, Certified Inspector General and a Certified Public Accountant.

He is originally from Atlanta and now lives in Tallahassee with his two daughters, Mackenzie (15) and Elle (8).