

FLORIDA INSPECTORS GENERAL

Enhancing Public Trust

Kim Mills

Kim received a BS degree in Accounting and Finance from Florida State University School of Business. She is a Certified Public Accountant, Certified Inspector General and Certified Government Financial Manager. She has over 33 years service in state government, including 20 years with the Auditor General's Office and 5 with the Office of Inspector General at the Department of Business and Professional Regulation.

Kim is currently the Director of Auditing in the Chief Inspector General's Office. She has been in that position since 2004. She has served as a member of the Audit Committees for the State Board of Administration and the Leon County Clerk of Courts.

Kim is a member of the Institute of Internal Auditors and the Florida Chapter of the Association of Inspectors General. She services on the Executive Committee for the Tallahassee Chapter of the Association of Government Accountants.

Kim is a Tallahassee native, married and has 3 grown daughters. She enjoys working with her church, reading, gardening and taking motorcycle trips with her husband.