

FLORIDA INSPECTORS GENERAL

Enhancing Public Trust

Sarah Beth Hall

Sarah Beth Hall is the Deputy Audit Director/Manager of IT and Performance Audit for the Florida Department of Transportation's Office of Inspector General. Ms. Hall has eleven years of internal and external IT auditing experience where her responsibilities included coordinating, supervising, and conducting IT operational audits at various State agencies. Previously, Ms. Hall was a Process Consultant for Accenture and has over four years of experience in systems development. Ms. Hall holds a Bachelors of Science degree in Marketing from the Florida State University. Ms. Hall holds the Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA), Certified Internal Auditor (CIA), Certified Information Systems Security Professional designations (CISSP), and the Certified Inspector General Auditor (CIGA) designations. Ms. Hall is a member of the ISACA Tallahassee Chapter and currently serves as its Membership Director.